

Interactive Message

Guide

MAIN SCRIPTURE: Matthew 18 (Fill in the Blanks & Follow along)

I. Peter saw Mercy and Forgiveness as being _____. Human nature is much the same.

Unforgiveness Manifests itself a couple different ways in our Culture:

- Some people become _____, or hurl biting comments at people who wrong them.
- Other people take on a “Cancel Culture” mentality and resolve to “Cut people” from their Lives. They close the door on any chance of _____.

How many times do you think is enough to Forgive someone?

a. Jewish Rabbi’s and Teachers often taught someone should Forgive up to _____ times.

b. Peter felt we should forgive someone _____ Times

Read Matthew 18:23-32.

- The King in the Story wanted to _____ Accounts.
- One of his Servants came with a Debt He could not repay. According to ancient standards the amount He owed would have translated to _____ years Wages.
- When the man who owed the Debt pleaded to be Forgiven of it. “The servants master took _____ on him, _____ and let him go.”

II. On the Cross when Jesus laid down His Life for those who nailed him there. He clearly reflects to us as Humans the Character of _____

And the _____ of His Love.

What is it worth to you knowing that God has extended forgiveness even when its undeserved? How did the Servant forgiven of His debt respond?

Interactive Message

Guide

MAIN SCRIPTURE: Matthew 18 (Fill in the Blanks & Follow along)

I. Peter saw Mercy and Forgiveness as being _____. Human nature is much the same.

Unforgiveness Manifests itself a couple different ways in our Culture:

- Some people become _____, or hurl biting comments at people who wrong them.
- Other people take on a “Cancel Culture” mentality and resolve to “Cut people” from their Lives. They close the door on any chance of _____.

How many times do you think is enough to Forgive someone?

a. Jewish Rabbi’s and Teachers often taught someone should Forgive up to _____ times.

b. Peter felt we should forgive someone _____ Times

Read Matthew 18:23-32.

- The King in the Story wanted to _____ Accounts.
- One of his Servants came with a Debt He could not repay. According to ancient standards the amount He owed would have translated to _____ years Wages.
- When the man who owed the Debt pleaded to be Forgiven of it. “The servants master took _____ on him, _____ and let him go.”

II. On the Cross when Jesus laid down His Life for those who nailed him there. He clearly reflects to us as Humans the Character of _____

And the _____ of His Love.

What is it worth to you knowing that God has extended forgiveness even when its undeserved? How did the Servant forgiven of His debt respond?

When the servant was Forgiven of his debt. He then left the King and pursued one of his buddies who owed him about _____ Denarii which would be something like _____ in Modern day.

- a. When we withhold Forgiveness it's like we're basically saying to the world that Jesus Grace is _____ to Clean me. But it is not good enough to clean others.
- b. C.S. Lewis once said, "to be a Christian means to forgive the _____ because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you."

Jesus is the _____ of our Forgiveness

- c. We are all _____ to Jesus and we must Keep him at the forefront of our minds.
- d. We must remember our God is not only a God of _____ but He is also a God who in His _____ creates us _____ and He does not tolerate _____.
- e. God loves to do what is _____ but does not approve of what is _____.

It takes two people to _____ but only _____ to Forgive.

- a. This may involve difficult conversations with people before _____ can begin.
- b. We may have our _____ Tested.
- c. Sometimes we need to recall the old expression, "Time heals all _____"

Forgiveness will never come easy for us in our human strength. It's for this reason we must depend on the source of Forgiveness, "Jesus." Remember how He forgives is a great reminder of it's values. As we look to the Death, Burial and resurrection of Jesus we can see that "Forgiveness is far _____ than _____.

How could you show Love as Jesus has shown in your Life? Who do you know that might need you to step out in Faith and demonstrate Grace? Have you taken time Pray for them and invited God to show you the "Path to Healing?"

When the servant was Forgiven of his debt. He then left the King and pursued one of his buddies who owed him about _____ Denarii which would be something like _____ in Modern day.

- a. When we withhold Forgiveness it's like we're basically saying to the world that Jesus Grace is _____ to Clean me. But it is not good enough to clean others.
- b. C.S. Lewis once said, "to be a Christian means to forgive the _____ because God has forgiven the inexcusable in you."

Jesus is the _____ of our Forgiveness

- c. We are all _____ to Jesus and we must Keep him at the forefront of our minds.
- d. We must remember our God is not only a God of _____ but He is also a God who in His _____ creates us _____ and He does not tolerate _____.
- e. God loves to do what is _____ but does not approve of what is _____.

It takes two people to _____ but only _____ to Forgive.

- a. This may involve difficult conversations with people before _____ can begin.
- b. We may have our _____ Tested.
- c. Sometimes we need to recall the old expression, "Time heals all _____"

Forgiveness will never come easy for us in our human strength. It's for this reason we must depend on the source of Forgiveness, "Jesus." Remember how He forgives is a great reminder of it's values. As we look to the Death, Burial and resurrection of Jesus we can see that "Forgiveness is far _____ than _____.

How could you show Love as Jesus has shown in your Life? Who do you know that might need you to step out in Faith and demonstrate Grace? Have you taken time Pray for them and invited God to show you the "Path to Healing?"