

Interactive Message

Guide

MAIN SCRIPTURE: FATHERS DAY (Fill in the Blanks & Follow along)

“As _____ sharpens _____, so one _____ sharpens another.”

- Proverbs 27:17

God has many tools to help us as Fathers/Mothers/Parents/Leaders to our Children.

I. The First tool is our _____ and its intended to be our Instruction Manuel.

a. Instructions _____ us as we look to the “Big Picture” and see the pieces put in place for a project.

b. The Bible is our instruction Manuel. Today we have it available to us in Book form, our _____ and _____ too. We can access it on apps and even on YouTube.”

II. The Second tool in a man’s toolbox that is like in God’s toolbox is _____.

a. Spiritual leaders in the home and within our communities are to be the kind of people who are _____ to find and are _____.

III. The Third tool in a man’s toolbox like in God’s toolbox is _____.

a. Parents and Spiritual leaders need to be _____ and _____ in different situations. Sometimes they need to tighten up their level of love and commitment to family.

b. ____ % of Children living in single parent families will experience poverty before they turn 11yrs old. Compared to ____ % of children in two-parent families.

c. Homes without a Father are more likely to have children who become subject to _____ & _____ abuse. They are more likely to be violent or become teenage parents.

Interactive Message

Guide

MAIN SCRIPTURE: FATHERS DAY (Fill in the Blanks & Follow along)

“As _____ sharpens _____, so one _____ sharpens another.”

- Proverbs 27:17

God has many tools to help us as Fathers/Mothers/Parents/Leaders to our Children.

I. The First tool is our _____ and its intended to be our Instruction Manuel.

a. Instructions _____ us as we look to the “Big Picture” and see the pieces put in place for a project.

b. The Bible is our instruction Manuel. Today we have it available to us in Book form, our _____ and _____ too. We can access it on apps and even on YouTube.”

II. The Second tool in a man’s toolbox that is like in God’s toolbox is _____.

a. Spiritual leaders in the home and within our communities are to be the kind of people who are _____ to find and are _____.

III. The Third tool in a man’s toolbox like in God’s toolbox is _____.

a. Parents and Spiritual leaders need to be _____ and _____ in different situations. Sometimes they need to tighten up their level of love and commitment to family.

b. ____ % of Children living in single parent families will experience poverty before they turn 11yrs old. Compared to ____ % of children in two-parent families.

c. Homes without a Father are more likely to have children who become subject to _____ & _____ abuse. They are more likely to be violent or become teenage parents.

IV. The Fourth tool in a man's toolbox like in God's toolbox is a _____ .

a. Parents and Spiritual leaders must be _____ & _____ headed.

V. The Fifth tool in a man's toolbox like in God's toolbox is a _____ .

a. Fathers need to be people who _____ things together when Life is tough and circumstances try to pull us down.

b. We find the strength to do this by seeking the Lord actively and connecting with him. This happens through His _____, Listening to Him in Prayer, and through regularly giving God attention in _____.

VI. The Fourth tool in a man's toolbox like in God's toolbox is a _____ .

a. Its important for Parents to _____ for the messes they make.

b. We need to be transparent with our _____ about our struggles.

c. We have an opportunity to _____ through our mistakes with God's help.

Dad's have been put here to _____ sometime, but if we want to build it we have to leave our families with the _____ .

What kind are the tools you are passing along to your Children and those who look up to you?

How will you use the tools that God has given you to pass on to the next generation?

IV. The Fourth tool in a man's toolbox like in God's toolbox is a _____ .

a. Parents and Spiritual leaders must be _____ & _____ headed.

V. The Fifth tool in a man's toolbox like in God's toolbox is a _____ .

a. Fathers need to be people who _____ things together when Life is tough and circumstances try to pull us down.

b. We find the strength to do this by seeking the Lord actively and connecting with him. This happens through His _____, Listening to Him in Prayer, and through regularly giving God attention in _____.

VI. The Fourth tool in a man's toolbox like in God's toolbox is a _____ .

a. Its important for Parents to _____ for the messes they make.

b. We need to be transparent with our _____ about our struggles.

c. We have an opportunity to _____ through our mistakes with God's help.

Dad's have been put here to _____ sometime, but if we want to build it we have to leave our families with the _____ .

What kind are the tools you are passing along to your Children and those who look up to you?

How will you use the tools that God has given you to pass on to the next generation?